

QUR'ANIC ARABIC WORD TREE

An-Nās • Complete Sūrah

Canonical source text with reviewed teaching where available.

قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ

Say: I seek refuge in the Lord of humankind.

WORD 1

SAY

قُلْ

Qul
Say

WORD BREAKDOWN

قُلْ

↓
قُلْWhole word
Say

ROOT

ق و ل

say · speak · tell · state

GRAMMAR

A command addressed to one male; Arabic understands the 'you' from the verb form.

Introduces what the Prophet ﷺ is commanded to declare.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

قَالَ He said past tense

يَقُولُ He says present tense

نَقُولُ We say ن points to we

قُلْ Say! command to one male

The root stays connected to speaking while the form tells us who speaks and whether it is a statement or command.

WORD 2

I SEEK REFUGE

أَعُوذُ

A'ūdhu
I seek refuge

WORD BREAKDOWN

أَعُوذُ

أَـ

I

عُوذُ

seek refuge

the person doing the action the main verb stem

ROOT

ع و ذ

seek shelter · hold fast · take refuge

GRAMMAR

The opening أ marks the first-person speaker. The verb expresses actively seeking protection.

Begins the learner's spoken request for refuge.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

عَاذَ He sought refuge past

أَعُوذُ I seek refuge أ = I

نَعُوذُ We seek refuge ن = we

مَعَاذُ place of refuge derived noun

The root gives the movement toward protection while the prefix identifies the speaker.

بِرَبِّ

Bi-rabbi

With / by my Lord

WORD BREAKDOWN

بِرَبِّ

بِ with / by an attached preposition

رَبِّ Lord
the one who sustains

ROOT

ر ب ب

raise · nurture · sustain · govern

GRAMMAR

The preposition بِ joins to رَبِّ, while the possessive ending is understood in the attached form used here.

Names the source of protection being sought.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

رَبِّ Lord / nurturer base noun

بِرَبِّ by a Lord بِ attached

رَبِّي my Lord ي = my

The root picture of nurturing and sustaining makes رَبِّ a rich word for Lord and caretaker.

النَّاسِ

Al-nās

Humankind / people

WORD BREAKDOWN

النَّاسِ

النَّاسِ

Whole word
Humankind / people

ROOT

ن و س

humanity · people · movement among people

GRAMMAR

الْ makes the word definite: 'the people' or 'humankind.' After إِلَهِ or مَلِكِ, its kasrah marks it as the second noun in an idāfah phrase: 'of humankind.'

Identifies the people protected, the people described by the titles, and the people whose chests are affected.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

نَاسِ people indefinite group

النَّاسِ humankind definite article

وَالنَّاسِ and humankind وَ attached

The visible word stays stable while its sentence role shifts with each āyah.

مَلِكِ النَّاسِ

The King of humankind.

WORD 1

KING

مَلِكِ

Malik
King / Sovereign

WORD BREAKDOWN

مَلِكِ

مَلِكِ

King
the noun naming the sovereign

ك

kasrah marks the first noun in the phrase

ROOT

م ل ك

rule · own · possess · have authority

GRAMMAR

مَلِكِ is the first noun in an idāfah phrase.
Its kasrah links it to النَّاسِ, so the phrase means ‘King of humankind.’

Names Allah as the Sovereign over humankind.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

مَلِكِ king base noun

مَلِكِ King of... idāfah ending

مُلُوكِ kings broken plural

The root carries authority and ownership; the ending shows how the noun connects to what follows.

WORD 2

HUMANKIND

النَّاسِ

Al-nās
Humankind / people

WORD BREAKDOWN

النَّاسِ

النَّاسِ

Whole word
Humankind / people

ROOT

ن و س

humanity · people · movement among people

GRAMMAR

الْ makes the word definite: ‘the people’
or ‘humankind.’ After مَلِكِ or إِلَهِ, its kasrah
marks it as the second noun in an idāfah
phrase: ‘of humankind.’

Identifies the people protected, the people described by the titles, and the people whose chests are affected.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

نَاسِ people indefinite group

النَّاسِ humankind definite article

وَالنَّاسِ and humankind وَ attached

The visible word stays stable while its sentence role shifts with each āyah.

إِلَهِ النَّاسِ

The God of humankind.

WORD 1

GOD

إِلَهِ

Ilāh
God / deity

WORD BREAKDOWN

إِلَهِ

إِلَهِ

God

of the head noun naming the deity kasrah marks the genitive link

ROOT

أ ل ه

worship · deity · turn toward the One worshipped

GRAMMAR

إِلَهِ is the first noun in an idāfah phrase.
The kasrah is its genitive ending, while إِلَهِ النَّاسِ is the possessor: ‘the God of humankind.’

Names Allah as the true God belonging to no other object of worship.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

إِلَهِ

a god / deity base noun

إِلَهِ النَّاسِ God of humankind idāfah phrase

إِلَهَاتِ gods / deities broken plural

The root connects the word to worship and deity; the phrase makes the relationship clear.

WORD 2

HUMANKIND

النَّاسِ

Al-nās
Humankind / people

WORD BREAKDOWN

النَّاسِ

النَّاسِ

Whole word

Humankind / people

ROOT

ن و س

humanity · people · movement among people

GRAMMAR

الْ makes the word definite: ‘the people’
or ‘humankind.’ After مَلِكِ or إِلَهِ, its kasrah
marks it as the second noun in an idāfah
phrase: ‘of humankind.’

Identifies the people protected, the people described by the titles, and the people whose chests are affected.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

نَاسِ

people indefinite group

النَّاسِ humankind definite article

وَالنَّاسِ and humankind attached

The visible word stays stable while its sentence role shifts with each āyah.

مِنْ شَرِّ الْوَسْوَاسِ الْخَنَّاسِ

From the evil of the whisperer who repeatedly retreats.

WORD 1

FROM

مِنْ

Min
From / among

WORD BREAKDOWN

مِنْ

مِنْ

Whole word
From / among

ROOT

No lexical root

No lexical root — a preposition marking source, separation or origin.

GRAMMAR

مِنْ introduces the source or group something comes from. The final vowel in مِنْ is a pronunciation adjustment before the next word.

Introduces the harm or the group from which something comes.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

مِنْ from base preposition

مِنْ from among vowel before the next word

مِنْهُ from him / it attached pronoun

Short grammar words do important structural work even though they do not carry a lexical root.

WORD 2

HARM / EVIL

شَرِّ

Sharr
The evil / harm

WORD BREAKDOWN

شَرِّ

شَرِّ

Whole word
The evil / harm

ROOT

ش ر ر

badness · harm · evil

GRAMMAR

مِنْ introduces the source or separation, and the noun is definite in meaning through the construction.

Names the harm from which refuge is sought.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

شَرِّ evil / harm base noun

مِنْ شَرِّ from the harm preposition added

شَرَّارِ worst / evil ones related plural

The phrase is learned as a unit while the word remains available for comparison elsewhere.

الْوَسْوَسِ

Al-waswās

The whisperer / persistent whispering

WORD BREAKDOWN

الْوَسْوَسِ

الْوَسْوَسِ

Whole word

The whisperer / persistent whispering

ROOT

و س و س

whisper · repeat secretly · hidden suggestion

GRAMMAR

The repeated root letters fit the repeated nature of whispering; the definite article identifies the particular whisperer.

Identifies the source of the evil.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

وَسَّسَ He whispered past verb

يُوسِّسُ He whispers present verb

وَسْوَسَاتٍ whispering action noun

الْوَسْوَسِ the whisperer definite form

The repeated root remains connected to whispering while the pattern gives the persistent sense.

الْخَنَّاسِ

Al-khannās

The one who repeatedly retreats

WORD BREAKDOWN

الْخَنَّاسِ

الْخَنَّاسِ

Whole word

The one who repeatedly retreats

ROOT

خ ن س

withdraw · retreat · hide back

GRAMMAR

The strengthened middle letter carries an intensive or repeated sense.

Describes the whisperer as repeatedly retreating or hiding back.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

خَنَّسَ He withdrew past

يَخْنِسُ He withdraws present

خَنَّاسٍ one who repeatedly withdraws

intensive noun

The root carries withdrawal while the pattern gives repeated or strong withdrawal.

الَّذِي يُوسَّوِسُ فِي صُدُورِ النَّاسِ

The one who whispers in the chests of humankind.

WORD 1

THE ONE WHO

الَّذِي

Al-ladhī
The one who / which

WORD BREAKDOWN

الَّذِي

الَّذِي

Whole word
The one who / which

ROOT

No lexical root

linking a noun to its description

GRAMMAR

This pronoun connects a person or thing to the description that follows.

Introduces what the whisperer does.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

الَّذِي the one who masculine singular

الَّتِي the one who feminine singular

الَّذِينَ those who masculine or mixed plural

The meaning remains 'the one who,' while gender and number change the form.

WORD 2

HE WHISPERS

يُوسَّوِسُ

Yuwaswis
He whispers

WORD BREAKDOWN

يُوسَّوِسُ

يُوسَّوِسُ

Whole word
He whispers

ROOT

و س و س

whisper · repeat secretly · hidden suggestion

GRAMMAR

The opening ي identifies a third-person masculine present verb.

Gives the action performed by the whisperer.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

وَسَّوَسَ He whispered past

يُوسَّوِسُ He whispers present he form

تُوسَّوِسُ You / she whispers ت prefix

أُوسَّوِسُ I whisper أ prefix

The repeating root remains while the opening changes who performs the present action.

فِي

Fī
In

WORD BREAKDOWN

فِي

فِي

Whole word
In

ROOT

No lexical root

location within something

GRAMMAR

The preposition locates the following noun as the place where something occurs.

Identifies where the whispering takes place.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

فِي in preposition

فِيهِ in it attached pronoun

فِيهَا in her / it feminine pronoun

Short grammar words become anchors for understanding longer Qur'anic phrases.

صُدُورٍ

Şudūr
Chests · breasts

WORD BREAKDOWN

صُدُورٍ

صُدُورٍ

Whole word
Chests · breasts

ROOT

صدر

chest · front · come forth · emerge

GRAMMAR

This is the broken plural of صَدْر. It follows فِي, so its ending reflects the preposition.

Identifies where the whispering enters or occurs.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

صَدْر chest singular

صُدُور chests broken plural

صَدَرَ he came forth verb

مَصْدَر source / origin derived noun

The root family connects the chest or front with coming forth and origin, while patterns create different words.

النَّاسِ

Al-nās

Humankind / people

WORD BREAKDOWN

النَّاسِ

النَّاسِ

Whole word

Humankind / people

ROOT

ن و س

humanity · people · movement among people

GRAMMAR

ألـ makes the word definite: ‘the people’ or ‘humankind.’ After مَلِكٍ or إِلَهٍ, its kasrah marks it as the second noun in an idāfah phrase: ‘of humankind.’

Identifies the people protected, the people described by the titles, and the people whose chests are affected.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

نَاسِ people indefinite group

النَّاسِ humankind definite article

وَالنَّاسِ and humankind وَ attached

The visible word stays stable while its sentence role shifts with each āyah.

مِنَ الْجِنَّةِ وَالنَّاسِ

From among the jinn and humankind.

WORD 1

FROM AMONG

مِنَ

Mina
From / among

WORD BREAKDOWN

مِنَ

مِنَ

Whole word
From / among

ROOT

No lexical root

No lexical root — a preposition marking source, separation or origin.

GRAMMAR

مِنَ introduces the source or group something comes from. The final vowel in مِّنَ is a pronunciation adjustment before the next word.

Introduces the harm or the group from which something comes.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

مِنَ from base preposition

مِنَ from among vowel before the next word

مِنْهُ from him / it attached pronoun

Short grammar words do important structural work even though they do not carry a lexical root.

WORD 2

THE JINN

الْجِنَّةِ

Al-jinnah
The jinn

WORD BREAKDOWN

الْجِنَّةِ

الْجِنَّةِ

Whole word
The jinn

ROOT

ج ن ن

hidden · covered · concealed · unseen

GRAMMAR

The root family carries hiddenness or covering. Here the word refers to jinn, normally hidden from human sight.

Names the first group from which whisperers may come.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

جَنَّ jinn common collective

جَنَّةَ jinn in this form related collective noun

جَنَّةَ garden / Paradise different vowels

مَجْنُون one whose reason is covered derived form

The shared root concerns hiddenness, but vowel patterns produce different related words.

وَالنَّاسِ

Wa-al-nās

And

WORD BREAKDOWN

وَالنَّاسِ

وَ- and an attached connector

النَّاسِ

humankind
the people / humankind

ROOT

No lexical root

joining two elements

GRAMMAR

The connector is written directly onto the following word.

Adds the second group or clause.

ŞARF / FORM FAMILY

وَالنَّاسِ and humankind وَ added

فَالنَّاسِ so the people فَ added

بِالنَّاسِ with the people بِ added

A small attached word can change the relationship between two otherwise familiar words.

Sources and credits

Tanzil canonical text · project-authored teaching for Sūrahs 112–114.
Generated from PostgreSQL canonical content.